

Goodman Flute Studios

Policies 2026 - 2027

Caregiver/Adult Flutist Responsibilities:

Support and encourage an environment that fosters regular practice!

Provide the necessary materials for lesson success, including:

- A fine, playable instrument in good repair
- Legally purchased or downloaded sheet music
- Music stand, metronome, and/or tuner, as advised

Help is available when purchasing a new instrument!

- Email Ms. Goodman to craft a plan together in support your flutist's musical growth through investing in a new instrument.
- Please don't purchase a gift instrument without expert assistance!

Arrange for your flutist's instrument to have a yearly clean, oil, and adjust with a recommended repair professional.

- Problem with your flutist's instrument? Inform Ms. Goodman, and contact Xan Nelson for repair at 614-516-4440.

Familiarize yourself with the attendance and tuition policies!

- Ensure that your flutist is punctual to each lesson.

Keep in regular communication with both Ms. Goodman and your flutist about their progress and goals!

- Keep your email address and phone number up-to-date with Ms. Goodman, and check your email regularly for studio communication.

Give at least one month's notice, if your flutist wishes to discontinue lessons or is graduating from the studio.

- One month's tuition is due for lessons discontinued with less than one month's notice.

Bookmark the studio calendar and blog for regular checks!
